PROFESSIONAL TOOL STORAGE SYSTEMS

Professionals demand tough and rugged tool storage products, which can withstand harsh conditions on a daily basis. The ROC brand encapsulates this with its heavy-duty, performance focused range of tool storage and accessories. Designed for the toughest tasks and rigorously tested for optimum endurance under severe conditions, the range includes stackable storage boxes and workbenches, offering functional and versatile solutions which are designed to stand up to whatever a job throws at them.

Keter is the global market leader in resin storage products and offers a diversified portfolio across a wide range of product categories and price points.

70 years of production experience has been put into the ROC Professional range, using the best materials combined with Keter innovation. Only the Keter ROC range can offer a 25 year guarantee, backed by a full parts service.

If any Keter ROC product fails due to manufacturing or material error, simply call 0121 506 0008, and we will get you the replacement parts you need to get you back on Site.
